

THE SISKIN MUSEUM OF RELIGIOUS ARTIFACTS

- Founded by Mose and Garrison Siskin -

The Siskin Museum of Religious Artifacts contains over 400 religious pieces, 247 Judaic and 140 Christian, ranging from the 16th to the 20th century. Located in Chattanooga, Tennessee on the property of Siskin Children's Institute, this museum is open to the public and private tours are available open request.

To learn more about Mose and Garrison Siskin or to schedule a museum tour for a group, organization, or school visit siskin.org or call 423.648.1700.

SERVING CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS
AND THEIR FAMILIES SINCE 1950.

1101 Carter St. | Chattanooga, TN | 423.648.1700 | siskin.org